I suppose you have seen the description Bill. That is just the thing for me. I had on the Southern front and make them fight, instead of staying at home and crying peace and doing nothing for our General.

AN IMPROVED ECHO. A Bill response is not and then raised by school as well as by the school of men. A few years ago the following occurred in Baltimore during the session of a religious conference: A English clergyman was in the pulpit, and he was got on a high, for the purpose of delivering a great speech. Echo came to the rescue of his American friends, and the following colloquy ensued:

Clergyman—My Chairman.
Echo—My Chairman.
Clergyman—I have the floor, sir.
Echo—I have the floor, sir.
Clergyman—Do you mean to insult me?
Echo—Do you mean to insult me?

By this time the whole audience roared, and the English clergyman, who had been so confident, dropped down on his face, uttering imprecations against the ill manners of American Clergymen.

A long and interesting letter from our Augusta correspondent, about the celebrated "Yarmouth case," is judiciously omitted to-day, but will appear in our next.

DEATH OF CAPT. AYER. Captain John Ayer of this city, who has been a wounded prisoner in the hands of the rebels for some months, died at the Liberty Prison in Richmond about three weeks since. He was 36 years of age. He was the commander of Co. H, 16th Maine Regiment, which was attached to Gen. Franklin's Grand Division of the Army of the Potomac, and was foremost in the brave assault upon the rebel lines in the battle of Fredericksburg. His gallant and undaunted courage on that memorable day had been attested, not only by the officers and men of his own company, but the whole regiment.

He was wounded in the leg just above the knee, and being taken to the field of battle, was taken prisoner and carried to Richmond.

With the exception of a short stay in England and four years' residence on West, Captain Ayer has resided in this city from his boyhood, and was highly appreciated by all of her citizens, who will deeply deplore his premature death. He leaves a wife and two young children. He was a son of John Ayer, Esq., of this city.

The announcement of the death was received from the Chaplain of the General Hospital at Annapolis, in a letter to Captain Ayer's wife in this city. We copy from the letter the following deserved eulogium to his worth as a soldier and as a man.

"Your husband, by his heroic and manly conduct, had won the respect and confidence of officers and men of our own and the C. S. army. He was a man of great courage and a true patriot. He was a man of great courage and a true patriot. He was a man of great courage and a true patriot.

"The Boston Journal says a lady who passed a fine cent piece in one of the horse cars recently, was very much confused by the wondering gaze of the other passengers. The conductor examined the piece very carefully to satisfy himself that it was genuine.

"The peculiar loyalty of Prof. Francis Train, which he showed in refusing to be a delegate to the National Convention at Chicago, is not (or rather is) appreciated at the West. The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "George Francis arrived here on Thursday and stopped at the Burnside Hotel, registering himself as from America, and left that night for Detroit, being unable to obtain a hall in which to deliver his lecture."

Corn meal has been selling in Galveston, Texas, Knoxville, Tennessee, and other markets at 86 per bushel.

It is said that Paul Morphy has been beaten at chess by a Frenchman.

A company, with a capital of $50,000, has been organized in Paris for the cultivation of cotton in Algeria.

At a Sunday School in New York, a bright looking fellow was asked, "What is an inward monitor?" He answered very properly, "An inward monitor." And "what is a monitor?" "Oh, one of the blind-fold."

A Memphis letter in the Chicago Tribune expresses a doubt whether there are at present 30,000 soldiers at Vicksburg. It thinks the army are concentrating their forces for an assault on the city.

The New York Herald says: "A hale looking fellow applied to our almshouse last week for alms, and on being received, and proper attention paid to his wardrobe, two hundred sovereigns were discovered."

WE understand that Dr. W. U. George from Boston, designs to spend a few weeks in this part of the State, in lecturing on Diphtheria and introducing a valuable medicine—the Hemphill's—against that loathsome disease.

A SANITARY JOKE. What is the matter with the clock on the H— street church, that it stops so much? It is a new "doctored" one.

Mrs. Cowan, widow of the late Captain Cowan of Biddeford, has been appointed postmistress of that city, in place of her husband, deceased. During the absence of Capt. Cowan, at the war, the duties of the office were performed by his wife and daughter, and the affairs of the office are said to have been admirably managed by them.

MEMBER OF A MAINE MAN IN WASHINGTON. The New York Tribune correspondent writes that Mr. B. F. Kendall was considered in his office at Olympia on the 7th of January. The deceased was a native of Biddeford, Oxford county, where his parents now reside. Mr. Kendall graduated at Bowdoin in 1862, and after studying the profession of law, sought his fortune in the Far West. He was an every day man, a promoter and a rising man. In the summer of 1861 he was appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, but getting into a controversy with a man named Howe, he shot him in self defense, inflicting a severe but not fatal wound. On the 7th of January, Howe's son entered Kendall's office, asked to see him in a room in his private office; he stepped in, closed the door, and soon a loud report of a pistol was heard, and Mr. Kendall's name staggered out, shot through the heart. He died immediately, but the murderer was apprehended, and is awaiting his trial.

The troubles between the white and negro soldiers at Ship Island have been settled by Gen. Banks, who has ordered the two companies of the 13th Maine, located at the Island, to be sent to reinforce Fort Jackson and St. Philip. All the officers of the Maine regiment have been released from arrest.

A grand Union State Meeting for Somerset county is to be held at Richmond on the 18th, Wednesday next.

The Christian News that Melville Murphy of Brighton, Luther Baker and Samuel Andrews of Mead, members of the 21st Maine regiment, died on their passage from New York to New Orleans. The passage was a long one, the vessel being out 85 days.

STARVATION IN THE SOUTH. The New Orleans Era of the 1st reports the return of about twenty persons, who left that city a few weeks previous, and found complete destitution in the region that they came back to save themselves from starvation. They were ill-treated en route, but got enough of succor, and came back ready to take the path of allegiance, which every one of them did. Every one of
